Vol 17 Issue 5

7th November 2025

Dear Parent/Carer

Welcome back to school. There is a lot to fit in between now and when we break up for Christmas!

Anti-Bullying Week / Odd Socks Monday / Children in Need

Please see the back of this newsletter for information about what we are doing to mark the above.

ROAR

We have had lots of amazing entries and next week we will be having our school finals. Well done to everyone who has taken part.

PTA News

Our PTA are busy getting ready for our Christmas Fair on Friday 28th November. With this newsletter there is a letter about what is happening and how you can help us make it another success.

School Discos

Next Thursday are our Winter Disco's. If you haven't booked a place for your child yet, there is still time. Tickets are £3.50 – please send an envelope with the right money in with your child's name and class if you would like them to come.

Christmas Services

A letter will be coming out next week to enable you to pre-order tickets.

Inset Day – Friday 12th December

Our next Inset Day is Friday 12th December. This is intentionally planned the day after our second evening Christmas Service as we appreciate the children get tired. Our staff will be completing first aid training on that day.

Have a great weekend!

Kind regards

Mr M Follen
Headteacher

Working together with Lowe's Wong Infant School

Whilst we can't always do exactly the same, next week we will be joining everyone at Lowe's Wong Infant School with their plans for Anti-Bullying Week, Odd Socks Day and Children in Need.

Anti-Bullying Week & Odd Socks Day

Next week is Anti-Bullying week and the theme this year is, "Power for Good". As a school we use Jigsaw to teach our PSCHÉ Curriculum including anti-bullying themes throughout the year.

As it is Anti-Bullying Week next week, on Monday (10th November) it is 'Odd Socks Day', and so we are encouraging the children (and the staff) to wear odd socks to celebrate what makes us all unique. The socks can be different colours, different patterns or even different styles, anything goes!

Children in Need – Friday 14th November

It is "Children in Need Day" next Friday 14th November. The children should come to school in their uniform on Friday, but of course they are welcome to wear any Children in Need merchandise they have too (such as wristbands, badges or Pudsey Bear ears) If anyone wants to donate to Children in Need then please send the money to the School Office.
